Breheny to head the IVCA

THE Irish Venture Capital Association (IVCA) has appointed investment professional Regina Breheny its new director general. Over the past 20 years Breheny has worked in banking and investment including institutional fund management and stockbroking. She is a fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and an associate of the Institute of Taxation and of the Society of Investment Analysts. The IVCA, which was established in 1985, represents members who manage more than 95pc of the €1bn managed by VC funds in Ireland.
