

The British Irish Chamber of Commerce has the pleasure of inviting you to our Business Breakfast Seminar:

Tuesday 26th
February 2013

The Burlington,
Upper Leeson Street,
Dublin 4

7.30am - 9.30am

Insolvency Regimes in Britain & Ireland - Compared & Contrasted

British & Irish Insolvency experts will provide insights into the practicalities, similarities and differences of the Insolvency Regimes in Britain & Ireland. Delegates will also have an opportunity to meet one-to-one with Insolvency experts to answer specific queries.

ABOUT:

This seminar is aimed at companies trading in Britain and Ireland who may be affected by insolvencies amongst their customers, suppliers and or partners. It will offer practical advice on the subtle differences in the insolvency regimes in these jurisdictions so that your company is kept informed and best placed to deal with these issues if they arise.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Individuals or Businesses doing business in Ireland and Britain
- Owners / Managers of SME's
- CFO/ Financial Controllers
- Credit Controllers

GUEST SPEAKER:

- Chairperson - Ian Kehoe
Business Editor, Sunday Business Post

To register, please contact:

Conor Hynes on conor.hynes@britishirishchamber.com or Tel: 01 4004324

7.30am - 8.00am

Light breakfast will be served

8.00am - 8.15am

Introduction & Welcome

Steve Aiken,
CEO, British Irish
Chamber of Commerce

8.15am - 8.45am

The Irish Perspective -

Declan Taite,
Partner & Head of Restructuring & Insolvency,
RSM Farrell Grant Sparks

8.45am - 9.15am

The British Perspective -

Tom MacLennan,
Partner & Head of Restructuring & Insolvency,
RSM Tenon

9.15am - 9.30am

Panel Q&A

9.30am - 10:30am OPTIONAL ONE-TO-ONE CLINICS:

One-to-one clinics with Insolvency experts from RSM Farrell Grant Sparks and RSM Tenon, will take place following the seminar. Delegates will have an opportunity to meet one-to-one with expert advisors to answer specific queries.